FIRE SUNDAY .- About half-past 11 o'clock Sunday morning Mr. Clement Brooke, pro-prieter of the ladies' underwear manufactory, No. 3114 Main street (up-stairs), upon going into his pattern-room found the place filled with smoke. He 'immediately ran down into the street, intending to give an slarm of tire, but Policeman Parater and Mr. R. M. S. Paynter, of the Western Union Telegraph Company, insisted on seeing the before the alarm was turned in. Upon going into the pattern-room they found that flames were spreading rapidly, but by hard work and with the aid of citizens they extinguished them without calling cut the Fire Brigade. It was ascertained that there had been a long line of paper patterns bung against a wall, and that the stove pipe had parted at one of the joints and the sparks tallen upon some of the patterns, setting them afire. The patterns and a con-siderable quantity of lace and fine goods were destroyed, and several sewing-machines were hadly damaged. Many of the patterns Mr. Brooke says he cannot replace at any price. His whole loss he estimates at $1,500, upon which there is an insurance of seven or eight hundred dollars in the London, Liverpool and Globe office.

FRANKLIN STEARNS .- Mr. Franklin Stearns, one of the delegation appointed by the Governor to the Pacific Railroad Conention which met in St. Louis last week returned to the city yesterday. Mr. Stearns stated to a Dispatch reporter who called upon him that he left General Imboden and the other members of the Virginia delegation in St. Louis. He said he knew very little of the affray which occurred between Generals Johnson and Imboden, and therefore would rather not say anything about He further said that there was no truth whatever in the report that General Johnson had inflicted several wounds upon General Imboden's face. On the contrary, he thought General Imboden was the finest-looking man in the Convention, and his handsome appearance was much commented upon by the citizens of St. Louis. Mr. Stearns thought that General Imboden would reach the city today in company with the other members of the Richmond delegation.

improved recently. At the Baptist ministers' meeting vester day morning a number of items of deep interest were reported, and it was noted that committee-clerks of the House last year, are nearly every one of the churches represented was in a state of revival. The ministers

At half-past 7 in the evening Father Janssens delivered a finished and interesting sermon upon "Original Sin and its Consequences"; after which followed the benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The choir rendered some choice music in excellent style. The trio "O, Salutaris," taken from Mercadante's mass, was admirably sung by Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Edelblut, and Mr. A. T. Abernetby. Night services will be continued every

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Arrival of Members and Candidates CAUCUSES TO BE HELD TO-NIGHT.

The General Assembly will meet at 12 o'clock to-morrow, when the two houses will be organized and a joint committee appointed to wait upon the Governor, Many members are already in the city, and a great number will arrive by the evening trains and boats. At present there are almost as many candidates as members here.

The Conservative members of each House will caucus to-night for officers of their respective bodies.

The House caucus will meet in the hall

There are Work out your own salvation with fear and "open communion" views, it may be well to several other gentlemen mentioned in connection with the speakership, but it has not no their friends will urge their claims.

OTHER HOUSE OFFICERS. Mr. John Bell Bigger is without an opponent for the clerkship. The sergeantey at arms and places of doorkeepers are sought by a large number of worthy gentlemen. It has been the custom to renominate those defeated for the sergeantey for first doorkeeper, and those defeated for first doorkeeper for second doorkeeper, and so on. Mr. John F. Wall was sergeant-at-arms of the last House. This session he is a member of the House. Colonel C. T. Crittenden of Culpeper, Major James C. Hill of Albemarle (and formerly of Richmond). H. D. Burruss of King William, B. W. S. Holt of Mecklenburg, George M. Waddil! of Isle of Wight. and T. F. Graves of Bedford, are candidates for the position. The candidates for first doorkeeper of the House are E. B. Burke of Augusta, William A. Maupin of Rockingham. John C. Ott of Woodstock, M. M. Anderson of Louise, John M. Smith of Albemarle, R. O. Hudson of Culpeper, R. C. Macon of Orange, J. Dew Montague of Middlesex, B. M. Francisco of Louisa, A. B. Cottrell and S. N. Davis of Menrico, Andrew Briggs of Sussex. William Eggleston of Giles.

Mr. A. O. Sollivan of Montgomery offers himself for reelection as second doorkeeper. The only candidate offering directly against him is Mr. E. B. Simpson of Bridgewater, but some of these left out of the race for sergeant-at-arms and first doorkeeper may enter this.

Mr. John J. Wilkinson, of Pittsylvania, was third doorkeeper last term, and is a candidate for reflection. J. B. Chandler, late of Caroline, now of Richmond; R. Tyler Jones, of Richmond; E. M. Howerton, of Halifax; and W. I. Irby, of Hanover, are also candidates. SENATE OFFICES.

Colonel Shelton C. Davis, of Henrico, will remain clerk of the Senate as a matter of morning. course. Captain Wirt Harrison, sergeant-atmeetings will be kept up every night this arms, will be opposed by Mr. A. M. Dickerson, of Grayson, and by a candidate from the Valley. No opposition to Colonel Minor, the doorkeeper, is yet manifest.

CLERKS AND PAGES. Mr. John Bell Bigger, as clerk of the House, will have the pick of six or seven committee-clerks out of about one hundred and fifty gentlemen who think they are competent and desire such places. The Speaker appoints the pages. If all the boys who have applied were appointed it would make a serious inroad upon the attendance at several of the male schools of this city. Colonel Shelton Davis appoints about half a dozen committee-clerks. Last year there was some sort of understanding that hereafter these clerks should be taken not more than one from each congressional district, but generally Colonel Davis is left untrammelled. leutenant-Governor Thomas will make the selection of pages for the Senate. Nearly all the old clerks and pages are eager to be reappointed.

STATE OFFICERS. The nominations for State offices will probably be commenced to-morrow night or the night after, in joint caucus. The term of Dr. W. H. Ruffoer, Superintendent of Public Instruction, does not expire for two years to come. No opposition to the reelection of Messrs. W. F. Taylor, Auditor of Public Accounts; R. M. T. Hunter, Treasurer; James McDonald Secretary of the Commonwealth; R. F. Walker, Superintendent of Public Printing; and Samuel H. Boykin, Register of the Land Office, has yet been developed. Colonel A. Q. Holladay, of Henrico, and General Asa Rogers, the present incumbent, are cindidates for Second Auditor. The contests for the other offices are noted as follows: The present incumbent, Captain W. M. Taliaferro, will not be a candidate for reelection as Penitentiary Storekeeper, but his brother, Mr. Nathan C. Taliaferro, who has conducted the business for several months, offers himself. The other candidates are Messrs. William Lovenstein, James M. Stevens, Lewis W. Burwell, Charles Y. Morriss, Frank W. Chamberlayne, and Miles Cary, of Richmond; James O. Boley, of Norfolk; Charles T. Plunkett, of Appomutox, and Thomas W. Spindle, of Montgomery.

Colonel G. French Strother, who has filled the office of Superintendent of the Penitentiary for six years, is a candidate for reelec tion. His opponents are Messrs. H. C. Jones of Richmond; John R. Nunn, of Clarke and W. W. Hardwicke, of Lynchburg. R. C. Burkholder, of Lynchburg, announced himself a candidate, but it is now said he has withdrawn. ADMISSION OF INDEPENDENTS. To the members of the General Assembly who have arrived in the city the admission of Independents to the Conservative caucuses presents itself as a somewhat serious quesion. Independents were admitted last year and the year before upon the understanding that they were to act in harmony with the party in all matters where action was determined on in caucus. Many members now here think that the same rule should be adopted at this time, while others are o opinion that true party interest demands their exclusion, or at least a definite pledge that they will hereafter on all occasions operate inside our party line.

MEMBERS IN THE CITY. The following members were registered at Exchange Hotel last night:

Senators : L. C. H. Finney, of Accomac J. W. Marsball; of Craig; J. W. Daniel, of Campbell; C. T. Smith, of Nelson; J. L. Eubank, of Bath; and H. H. Hurt, of Halifax. After the cancuses to-night the members will call upon the Governor and pay him their respects.

THE SENATORSHIP.

It is likely that the belieting for Conservative nominee for United States senator will commence in caucus as soon as the two houses are organized and nominations for State officers made.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE. The message of Governor Kemper to the General Assembly has been completed, and will be presented to morrow as soon as the two bouses are organized and ready to receive it. All of Governor Kemper's messages have commanded the people's atten-tion, and there is reason to believe that there is matter in this that will awaken more than ordinary interest.

ALLEGED FORGERY .- A negro man named Cabell Carter was arrested and lodged in the Second station-house yesterday, charged with unlawfully and feloniously forging the name of Edward Wingfield, and thereby obtaining $5 under false pretences. The order alleged to have been forged is written as follows: "RICHMOND, VA., Nov. 29.

" please send me the sum of five Dollars as quick as possible. E. WINGFIELD."

The forged order was taken by Cabell to Mr. Wingfield's residence and presented to his wife, who gave him the full amount thinking the order was genuine, and as the handwriting resembled Mr. Wingfield's. After Cabell was arrested he made oath that he bought the order from Frank Thomas, and he was also arrested on the charge of lorging the order. The cases will probably be investigated this
